A very fatherly Salesian who was filled with joy and optimism in his Salesian vocation. From a very early age he had a vision to be a 'Youth Worker' and he was always ready to be with the young and longed for their presence. He was very innovative in his youth ministry, soft-spoken, kind and gentle. He was filled with passion for the Word of God and never lost any opportunity to be of pastoral service to anyone who needed assistance. More than eight thousand priests, nuns, youth workers, and youth leaders have participated in about 200 seminars that he expertly animated. Thousands of young people have also profitted from his books on Value Education. The Province has lost a loving a good Animator, Retreat Preacher, Counsellor, Spiritual Director, Writer, Confessor and Friend of the young. May the Almighty reward him with eternal peace and joy.
